To: Local Media
From: Gibson County Sheriff's Office and Princeton Police Department
Date: February 21, 2011

While on routine patrol on Sunday evening Feb. 20th around 6:45pm, Officer Jeremy Robb of the Princeton Police Department, observed two suspicious persons behind the residence at 514 N. Race St. When Officer Robb attempted to make contact with the individuals, they fled. Officer Robb and Officer Neftali Padilla of the Princeton Police Department, along with Deputies Bryan Ellis, Brad Garnett, and Tyler Taylor of the Gibson County Sheriff's Office then set up a perimeter before entering the residence and attempting to locate the individuals. Officer Robb and Deputy Ellis located a subject identified as Matthew Ingle in the attic of the residence. Ingle was taken into custody and placed in Deputy Taylor's vehicle. Officers then checked a garage behind the residence where they located two additional subjects. Those subjects were identified as Tailor Christmas and Blake Ray. While taking both subjects into custody, officers located several items that had been reported stolen. The Gibson County Sheriff's Office is still investigating for any connection between the items recovered and a string of recent thefts in the Princeton area.

Matthew Ingle, 18 yoa of Princeton.Ingle had an outstanding warrant for probation violation and an outstanding warrant for trespass. Ingle was also charged with Resisting-Fleeing.
Ingle is being held at the Gibson County Jail with no bond.

Tailor Christmas, 21 yoa of Princeton. Christmas had an oustanding warrant for probation violation. Christmas was also charged with possession of marijuana and possession of stolen property. Christmas is being held at the Gibson County Jail with a $2500 cash bond and also has an active warrant through Vanderburgh County.

Blake Ray, 21 yoa of Princeton. Ray was charged with possession of marijuana and possession of stolen property. Ray is being held at the Gibson County Jail with a $1500 cash bond.