For Immediate Release:

On April 5, 2014, at 11:33 p.m. Deputy U.B. Smith observed a Silver 2004 Chrysler Town and Country minivan traveling eastbound on Broadway in Princeton, Indiana with only one working taillight. As Deputy Smith continued to follow the vehicle he observed that it was also traveling above the posted speed limit. Deputy Smith initiated a traffic stop at Broadway and Hart Streets in Princeton and identified the driver as Brandon Dewayne Gage age 32 of Evansville. During a roadside investigation a check of Mr. Gage's driving status revealed that his license was not current and he was listed as a Habitual Traffic Violator. At that point Deputy Smith took Mr. Gage into custody and transported him to the Gibson County Jail. Brandon Dewayne Gage was charged with Driving While a Habitual Traffic Violator. He remains in custody on a $750 bond.
