For Immediate Release:

 On May 25, 2014, at 9:56 p.m. the Gibson County Sheriff's Office received a report of a rollover accident on US 41 South of County Road 800 South near Fort Branch. Deputy Daniel Goedde arrived on scene to discover a Dark Blue 2003 Ford SUV had rolled down an embankment and one of the occupants had been ejected from the vehicle. Gibson County Ambulance personnel transported this individual to St. Mary's where they later succumbed to their injuries. During the crash investigation it was determined that the vehicle that was occupied by four individuals had left the roadway and rolled down an embankment. One other occupant was treated for a minor fracture to their wrist, and the remaining two occupants suffered no reportable injuries. Officers do not believe that alcohol was a factor in this incident.

Assisting Deputy Goedde in his investigation was:
Deputy Bryan Small GCSO
Officer Jeff Beck Fort Branch Police Department
Officer Glen Munnier Haubstadt Police Department
Trooper P.D. Stolz Indiana State Police
Barrett Doyle Gibson County Coroner
